This workshop has been designed to lessen the risk of nurses working in the Perioperative Area becoming involved in the legal process.

The workshop is case – based and will examine: the legal and professional practice issues along the Perioperative pathway from a patient’s admission through to their discharge from PACU. Consent; Duty of care issues (admission; is the OR ready and equipped); timeout; anaesthetics; positioning; the count; PACU.
Communication, documentation, safe management of medication and ACORN standards will be continuing themes.

At the conclusion of this workshop nurses will have a comprehensive list of warning signals to assist in risk management & safe practice in their hospital

Presenters:
Amelda Langslow LLB, is a lawyer working in Health Law Education who has a long association with nurses working in all areas of Perioperative Nursing.
